

The State of South Carolina.

At a Convention of the People of the State of South Carolina, begun and held at Columbia on the seventeenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Sixty, and thence continued by adjournments to Charleston, and there by divers adjournments to the twentieth day of December in the same year -

An Ordinance To dissolve the Union between the State of South Carolina and other States united with her under the compact entitled "In Constitution of the United States of America."

We, the People of the State of South Carolina, in Convention assembled, do declare and ordain, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That the Ordinance adopted by us in Convention on the twenty-third day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, whereby the Constitution of the United States of America was ratified, and also all Acts and parts of Acts of the General Assembly of this State, ratifying amendments of the said Constitution, are hereby repealed; and that the union now subsisting between South Carolina and other States, under the name of "The United States of America," is hereby dissolved.

Done at Charleston, the twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Sixty.

J. F. Jamison, Delegate from Barnwell and President of the Convention.
